I. ISAAC NEEDED
HIS FATHER'S WELLS

REDIGGING HIS FATHER'S WELLS

Genesis 26:15-16 (NKJV)

15 Now the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and they had filled them with earth. 16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we."

Genesis 26:17-18 (NKJV)

17 Then Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them.

II. JACOB'S WELL AND THE MESSIAH

John 4:11-14 (NKJV)

John 4:28-30 (NKJV)

28 The woman then left her waterpot, went her way into the city, and said to the men,
29 "Come, see a Man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?"
30 Then they went out of the city and came to Him.

Hebrews 10:24-25 (NKJV)

24 And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, 25 not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching

Judges 18:27-28 NIV

28 There was no one to rescue them because they lived a long way from Sidon and had no relationship with anyone else

Keep drinking from the wells of life;
keep coming to the well of
the FAMILY OF GOD
